

The fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth coaches contained the following pall-bearers :

Hon. Henry G. Long,	Hon. I. E. Hiestor,
James Patterson, Esq.,	Abraham Peters, Esq.,
Joseph B. Baker, Esq.,	Newton Lightner, Esq.,
H. B. Swarr, Esq.,	H. M. North, Esq.,
W. W. Brown, Esq.,	Henry E. Leaman, Esq.,
Patrick McEvoy, Esq.,	Wm. Carpenter, Esq.,
D. W. Patterson, Esq.,	Henry Eckert, Esq.,
Henry Franke, Esq.,	Wm. A. Morton, Esq.,
Francis Shroder, Esq.,	Dr. John McCalla,
Wm. R. Wilson, Esq.,	D. G. Eshleman, Esq.,
Robert C. Crane, Esq.

Next came the hearse, containing the metallic burial casket, in which were enclosed the remains of Mr. Buchanan.

On both sides of the hearse walked the pall-bearers, appointed by the Masons, viz: Messrs: Samuel Burns, Thos B. Coleman, Abr'm S. Bard, Maj. J. Rohrer, Prof. J. P. Wickersham, Elam Hurst, J. J. Sprenger, and Lieut. Wm. H. Peole.

The carriages immediately following the

Masonic Pallbearers for Buchanan June 1868

Clipped By:

patrickclarke11
Tue, Apr 26, 2022